

Substituting weakened Christianity by Islam What's going on in Germany – Refugees, Fake Refugees and Rapefugees

Before reporting from Germany we have to consider the background and the preconditions that made possible the crimes and atrocities committed in Cologne in the face of a well equipped, well armed and completely passive and silent police.

As long as Saddam Hussein was president of Iraq 10% of the Iraqi citizens were oriental Christians or Yezidi or Gnostics, so called Mandaean (manda = gnosis). Before the US-invasion they lived in peace, religiously motivated violence was severely punished, law courts were advised to consider only the case and not the confession of the disputing parties. Since the US-invasion, of these 10% of Iraqi citizens belonging to religious minorities, mainly Christians, half of them have been killed or compelled to flee, mainly to religiously tolerant Syria. (Compare these figures to the maximally 2 % of the German population consisting of Jews in Hitler's times: half of them were killed, half of them fled to many countries.) The bulk of the tiny minority of true refugees entering EU-territory are those victims and targets of Islam, fleeing twice. But what about the other 98%?

The headlines on the sexual crimes committed by fake refugees (would real ones behave like this?!) in Cologne and several other German cities on New Year's Eve went around the world. But for 5 long-lasting days all media and government officials kept completely silent about the incidents. The first "news" appeared not earlier than on 5th of January, after a wave of anger on so called social media made it unavoidable to make mention of it (– funny, don't you think, in an oh-so multiplural and independent world of media?). And also then the reports tried their best to cover up and play down the true dimensions: there was talk about mainly theft, robbery, yes: also some sexual assaults... And still there was made a big mystery about the geographical origin of the perpetrators.

Well: It doesn't need too much of detective skills to make a diagnosis. First of all there was doubtlessly a standstill order for the police on this evening. 200 armed (!) policemen cannot be that "helpless" and "overextended" as it was said afterwards. Some shots at least across the bow or the application of water cannons (as used one week later against protesters against the silence of the media and the hiding of the police!) – and the hubbub would have been over. Secondly, the whole issue was then quickly swept under the carpet, and especially in a big case like this such a decision is not to be made by a local Police chief on his own but of highest authorities. And thirdly: As it is very unlikely that criminal activities of such extent would just start on New Year's Eve as a sort of kick-off, there must have been a central coordinated instruction to keep still and silent in similar cases for quite some time before. Only the dimension of the Cologne attacks might have been new (– at least in Germany, I will give you an identical example from Sweden later).

Despite internet providers deleted many of the eyewitness reports on facebook and other so-called social media, the censored informations leaked mostly through PEGIDA-linked channels and so reached a spread wide beyond the Cologne region. And now for those in power the most precious good was in danger: the peoples belief that the press and TV spread news simply to sell them for money. So, with a 5-days delay all of a sudden all of the media - worldwide - was full of shocking news about the occurrences in Cologne and by the way several other German cities... The same Lying Press that had for months or even years systematically concealed the geographical origin of the criminals and denied every connection between the flood of fake refugees and the rising criminality since, then all of a sudden fell all over themselves in reports and oops and whoops about their own lies and concealments.

And then, have YOU ever heard about it – me definitely not before I researched for material on this topic – so again: after all these “miracles” and “how-could-this-happen” and pitiful police so unable to cope with “crimes of a completely new dimension”, after all this hypocritical rubbish it has since been told that the German Federal Criminal Police Office (BKA) does well know the phenomenon of mass sexual harassment and gang-rape from the Tahrir Square demonstrations in Egypt – what was it all about the “Arabic Spring democratisation”? –, and it even has a name in Arabic language: “taharrush”. Large groups of men surround their victim in circles. The men in the inner circle are the ones who physically abuse the woman, the next circle are the spectators, while the mission of the third circle is to distract and divert attention to what's going on. First documented in 2005, Egyptian security forces and their agents were blamed for using mass sexual assault during political demonstrations in order to exclude women from the public and political spheres. Since then the mob sexual assaults, including rape, have become a regular feature particularly during protests in Tahrir Square and religious festivals. 500 cases were documented between June 2012 and June 2014. Whether it is sponsored by the state, or covered by its complicity: Impunity still prevails.

And this is the keyword leading us back to Germany: Now, 3 months after New Year, after more than 1000 reports to the police only in Cologne (40 % of them about sexual offences) not one single rapefugee has been punished. This means nothing less than that the state encourages the masses of fake refugees – again: would true ones behave like this? – not only to commit robbery and brawls but also violent sexual harassment. Nothing encourages more to commit crimes than the immunity from punishment!

And we now also know, that Cologne was only the tip of the iceberg. After these atrocities had become publicly known, a lot of similar cases were reported, better to say: couldn't be suppressed any longer by the Lying Press; as time is short I can only mention here a few:

In Sweden, similar attacks had taken place at the “We Are Sthlm” Music Festival in 2014 (!) and 2015. The assaults followed the same pattern: Large groups of young men who surround girls and molest them. According to internal police reports the groups were “so-called refugee youths primarily from Afghanistan”. But nobody neither in- nor outside of Sweden ever heard about this in any “news” before the pseudo outcry on the New Year's Eve attacks in Germany.

Other cases:

- Gang rape of two girls aged 14 and 15 in Weil am Rhein by four “Syrian nationals”
- 17-year-old girl who was physically and sexually attacked in Sonderborg (Denmark) will herself face charges for using pepper spray to fend off her assailant
- 10-year-old boy brutally raped by iraqi migrant at a swimming pool in Vienna after having “too much sexual energy” (2nd Dec. 2015, perceptible reports first in Feb. 2016!)

One thing is striking about all these cases and their media coverage: the double standards applied on them. For years now we have an islamoid sexual crime legislation implemented in the EU on US-order, where consensual sexual intercourse between full-aged and minors is being prosecuted as statutory rape, even the consensual intercourse between both full-aged partners can be afterwards redefined as rape, if the “victim” makes up its mind the next day (Swedish law). Remember Roman Polanski and Jörg Kachelmann (or the newest case of british soccer player Adam Johnson) and thousands of US-american minors being prosecuted even for kisses. Even glances are being criminalised as sexual harassment. Well, but that doesn't apply to muslims. Here we shall have Fairständnis – even for real rape. Because this is integral part of their “culture” – isn't it?

And so, according to the ones in power we Europeans are now forced to adapt our own behaviour and clothing to this “cullltur”:

- In June 2015, two German high schools (Passau, Brandenburg) banned “revealing” clothes (miniskirts, shorts, transparent tops or blouses) to avoid “misunderstandings”, noting the different “culture” of the Muslim asylum seekers. By the way: do you find out any difference between what our press calls “culture” and the Nazi press called “völkisch”? (German term for “specific for certain ethnics”)
- Cologne Imam on the New Year's Eve attacks: “Girls were raped for being half naked and wore perfume.” Warning women against “adding fuel to the fire”, the Imam of a Salafist Cologne Mosque has said the victims of the New Year's Eve attacks were themselves responsible for their sex assault, by dressing inappropriately and wearing perfume.

Everyone who does not want to adopt to this comeback of medieval atrocities is being denigrated as “rightist” or even “far-rightist”. So let's at least briefly talk about PEGIDA. What is „rightist“ or even „far-rightist“ about the demand: “No Islamisation of the West”? What's “rightist” about the slogans: “No War on Syria”, “Peace with Russia”? - in this case Hitler must have been very “far leftist” by invading Poland and Russia.

Of course, we do not agree with PEGIDA in one point: Christianity is NOT the lesser of two evils. The Christians seem softer than Muslims only because of their defeat in the French Revolution. Europe's stake-free culture is opposed to Islamic lapidation and body-mutilation “culture” only because of that substantial quasi-military victory of the forces of humanity and civil rights over religion, not because of differences between certain religions. Therefore our slogan:

No Christian State – No Islamic State
Warsaw must never become Cologne!

As the currency of Christianity after a long period of relentless mental and physical terror lost its value thanks to the achievements of the French Revolution, its untamed colleagues from the Islam fraction are now far more useful for the same purpose. Never forget that in Poland as well as in Germany and Hungary Christianization was instrumental to convert formerly free Iron-Age peasants into feudal serfs! The Muslims are being used as a breaching weapon to revalue religion again in the more or less secular states of Western Europe, to lower the unwantedly high living standard, which was a result of the workers movement, the relatively unburdened sexuality (also an achievement of the workers movement). Because of its usefulness for this purpose, as was to be observed in so many examples for about the last 30 years, Islam has been constantly pampered by the press that declares that we have to be “reerespectful” towards its religious impertinences, be it the religious headscarf as an expression of unequal treatment of the sexes, be it religious food taboos on school meals, be it “honour crimes” encouraged by ridiculously lenient punishments, or even the deliberate destruction of physical integrity, as done by genitally mutilating female and male children, the latter having been officially legalized by the German government in 2012. All these examples are acts of severe violations of basic human rights, but exactly for this reason are extolled in the name of respect for religious feelings, i.e. lasting effects of early brainwashing and experienced violence, or in the name of respect for different "cultures" or of "multiculturalism". Well, that's what we've got now!

All this demonstrates: Religion matters. May be that Religion is not the ultimate source of all the atrocities we can observe from stone age to the Islamist NATO-invaders of Libya and Syria, but Religion undoubtedly reinforces all barbarisms and atrocities stemming from Paleolithic times. Hadn't the Jews been the millennial proof that you need not be a Christian and thus attracted the hatred of Europe's religious majority leaders, there had neither been Hitler's famous selective mass murders nor the mass crimes of Jedwabne and – after his defeat – the ones of Kielce and similar Polish towns. Maybe Religion is not the only source of evil but it undoubtedly is its most potent source. In our days Islam is the worst of all Religions, first because it never suffered from something like the French Revolution, resp. the anti-feudalist struggle of the town inhabitants. Second, because exactly of this reason it is pampered and defended at least by all NATO-governments. This is fact – interpret it as you like, but you can't deny it. Denying it would at least rival religious belief of the worst kind.

But one thing we shall not forget: Feminism was the first movement to re-implement segregation of the sexes in western nations after religious currency had lost its value. Feminists and Islamists are of the same flesh and kin. If you don't fight the preliminary evil you must not complain about the following. The atrocities we are now facing under the conditions of mass-immigration of pampered Muslim fake refugees would be unthinkable without the groundwork of feminism which always declared the sexes to be unequal. Well, Mohammed as well as Hitler or Adenauer did say nothing different. Just look at the sources, for example Quran verse 4.34: “Men are in charge of women, because Allah hath made the one of them to excel the other, and because they spend of their property (for the support of women). So good women are the obedient, guarding in secret that which Allah hath guarded. As for those from whom ye fear rebellion, admonish them and banish them to beds apart, and beat them. Then if they obey you, seek not a way against them.”

Or 4.43: „And if ye be ill, or on a journey, or one of you cometh from the closet, or ye have touched women, and ye find not water, then go to high clean soil and rub your faces and your hands (therewith).“

And as according to 4.5 women are foolish – sufaha – he promotes in 2,282: „O ye who believe! When ye contract a debt (...) call to witness, from among your men, two witnesses. And if two men be not (at hand) then a man and two women, of such as ye approve as witnesses, so that if the one erreth (through forgetfulness) the other will remember.“

For all true humanists however one motto should be clear and uniting: it is the demand Dr. Kerstin Steinbach<sup>1</sup> promoted here in Warsaw two years ago in her speech against both feminism and religion:

Equality instead of sexual segregation induced by popes, imams and feminists!

Danish teen fought off her attacker - now she'll face fine

A 17-year-old girl who was physically and sexually attacked in Sønderborg will herself face charges for using pepper spray to fend off her assailant.

The teenager told police that she was attacked in central Sønderborg on Wednesday at around 10pm by a dark-skinned English-speaking man. She said the man knocked her to the ground and then unbuttoned her pants and attempted to undress her.

The girl was able to save herself from further assault by using pepper spray on the attacker, but now she may be the one who ends up in legal trouble.

"It is illegal to possess and use pepper spray, so she will likely be charged for that," local police spokesman Knud Kirsten told TV Syd.

The case has sparked a backlash among some Danes who point to increasing reports of sexual harassment in Sønderborg and other Danish cities at the same time that police say they are stretched too thin to properly carry out their duties.

Numerous readers wrote in the comments section on TV Syd's story about the incident that they would be willing to pay the girl's fine, which will most likely be 500 kroner.

The man who attacked the 17-year-old fled from the scene and has not been charged.

Sexual assaults have been in the news in Sønderborg recently after several women in the town reported earlier this month that they sometimes feel harassed by the aggressive behaviour of some male asylum seekers and refugees at the local asylum centre.

It is not known, however, if the assailant in this latest incident was an asylum seeker or refugee.

You see: it's not a specifically German phenomenon. You need no Merkel to be raped by Muslim fake refugees, but perhaps you will need an Obama who orders you to let them in.

In 2002, Patrick Buchanan, the propaganda chief under Reagan, wrote in „USA Today“:

“Just to maintain the current 4.8-to-1 ratio of working-age population (ages 15-64) to seniors (65 and above), Europe must import 1.4 billion people by 2050.

Where will they come from? North Africa, the Middle East and the ex-colonies of the old empires. And the consequences for a continent that has never experienced mass immigration are at hand. (...) Islam has begun to reconquer Europe.”

Polish citizens: as you are newcomers in the Western Block you are being handled with kid gloves this time. But wait a maximum of 15 years, and you will be the next ones, and don't forget to remember my words!
